

The Doctrine of Prayer

Course Overview

I. COURSE INSTRUCTOR

A. Instructor Bio – Nathan Hollingsworth

1. ABS, Associates Degree in Biblical Studies

B. Instructor Contact

1. Email: ndhollingsworth@protonmail.com

II. COURSE INFORMATION

A. Course Schedule

1. Class duration: one semester
2. Class syllabus
 - a. August 21 = What is Prayer
 - b. August 28 = What is Prayer's Past, Present and Future?
 - c. September 4 = What Is the Godhead's Involvement in Prayer?
 - d. September 11 = What Are Some Misrepresentations of Prayer?
 - e. September 18 = What Are the Components and Requirements of Prayer?
 - f. September 25 = Why Should We Pray?
 - g. October 2 = For What Should We Pray?
 - h. October 9 = For Whom Should We Pray?
 - i. October 16 = When Should We Pray?
 - j. October 23 = What Can Prayer Accomplish
 - k. October 30 = What Can Hinder Our Prayers?
 - l. November 6 = Notable Old Testament Prayers and Their Lessons
 - m. November 13 = Notable New Testament Prayers and Their Lessons (The Gospels)
 - n. November 20 = Notable New Testament Prayers and Their Lessons (The Acts of the Apostles)
 - o. November 27 = Notable New Testament Prayers and Their Lessons (The Epistles)
 - p. December 4 = Final Exam

B. Course Grade

1. Notebook grade counts one time (excludes online students)
2. Reading/memory work (to be quoted on exam) counts one time each
3. Final exam counts two times