    - i. The example of Paul (1 Timothy 1:12-17)
    - ii. The example of Peter – (note: this example is from before Christ's death on the cross and is a loose application.) – The shacking of Peter's faith.
      - 1) Peter's confidence (John 13:36-38)
      - 2) Peter's confrontation (John 18:10-12)
      - 3) Peter's contradiction (John 18:25-27)
      - 4) Peter's recovery (John 21:1-7, 15-19; Acts 2:14, 41)

B. His Service and Faithfulness

1. Service in his local church
  - a. Is he active already in a ministry?
  - b. How long has he been active?
    - i. It is strongly suggested that the individual(s) have some level of experience in a ministry.
    - ii. This will be helpful for him/them as they move forward in preparation.

Quote from David F. Reagan: “God always starts with people where they are; not where they ought to be.”

2. Faithfulness

    - ii. If the individual cannot be faithful here, do not expect him to make it on deputation or the field.
    - iii. Laziness cannot be a part of the individual (1 Corinthians 4:2, 17; Luke 16:10-12)
