

II. THE CALL FOR PATIENT ENDURANCE (Hebrews 6:9-15)

A. The Expectations of the Present Audience (Hebrews 6:9-12)

1. The apostle's persuasion (Hebrews 6:9)
  - a. His demonstration of contrast—"But"
    - (1) The word but is a coordinating conjunction, but one that seeks to draw a contrast rather than a correlation.
    - (2) The contrast presented retrieves the content preceding and seeks to make distinction between two peoples within the Hebrew race.
      - a) Those who were enlightened, but returned to Judaism instead of fully trusting Christ (Hebrews 6:4-6) with those demonstrated "things that accompany salvation" (Hebrews 6:9).
      - b) Those who were likened to "thorns and briars...nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned (Hebrews 6:8) with those who were likened to "herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed," and "receiveth blessing from God" (Hebrews 6:7).
    - (3) In other words, the people of concern from the previous verses were unsaved, but the present audience had convinced the apostle of their salvation.
  - b. His term of endearment—"beloved"
    - (1) Definition
      - a) Consider that the word beloved was interchanged with the word elect when speaking of the Lord Jesus Christ (Matthew 12:18; Isaiah 42:1).
      - b) The first use suggests that one who is beloved is chosen to be loved in the stead of or above another (Deuteronomy 21:15-16).
      - c) Christ is identified as the beloved on numerous occasions (Matthew 3:17; Matthew 12:18; Matthew 17:5; Luke 20:13).
      - d) In the end, it would appear that one who is beloved is chosen to be loved above others.
    - (2) Application
      - a) Christ is the beloved (Matthew 12:18).
      - b) Believers are identified as the beloved only because they are accepted in "the beloved" (Ephesians 1:6).
      - c) This is not to be confused with Calvinistic teaching; a man becomes beloved when he is in the beloved, at salvation (2 Thessalonians 2:13).
      - d) As it pertains to these Hebrew believers, it should be understood that they were beloved both by their natural birth and by their second birth (Romans 11:28 see also Deuteronomy 7:7-8).

- c. His present persuasion
  - (1) The nature of persuasion
    - a) The apostle was persuaded better things of his audience.
    - b) It is important to note that the act of persuasion does not always denote the truth.
  - (2) The cause of persuasion—“things that accompany salvation” (see Hebrews 6:10); Note: Works are not required for salvation, but yield “assurance” (Hebrews 6:11) as noted by both James (James 2:14-26) and Paul (Ephesians 2:8-10; Titus 1:16; Titus 2:14; Titus 3:8).
  - (3) The concern of persuasion—“though we thus speak”
- 2. The Lord’s faithfulness (Hebrews 6:10)
  - a. In character—“God is not unrighteous”
  - b. In remembrance—“to forget your work and labour of love,”
    - (1) Showed toward His name
    - (2) Ministered toward His saints
  - c. While the obvious focus should be on the Lord’s faithfulness, it would be somewhat of a disservice to fail to mention that these Hebrews had been faithful in their own right.
    - (1) They had worked and laboured in love.
    - (2) They had demonstrated a pure motive in so doing—“which ye have shewed toward his name.”
    - (3) They had ministered to the saints.
    - (4) They, at present, continued to minister.
- 3. The apostle’s desire (Hebrews 6:11-12)
  - a. Continued diligence (Hebrews 6:11)
    - (1) The reach of the desire—“that every one of you”
    - (2) The nature of the desire—“do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope”
    - (3) The continuance of the desire
  - b. Following of examples (Hebrews 6:12)
    - (1) The negative—“That ye be not slothful”
    - (2) The positive
      - a) Be “followers of them [i.e., Abraham—see Hebrews 6:13-15] who through faith and patience inherit the promises.”
      - b) The keys of understanding
        - i) The virtues exercised
          - (a) Faith
          - (b) Patience; Note: The word patience has created quite a divide among Bible-believing Christians. Consider the following passages Hebrews 6:15; Hebrews 10:36; James 5:11; Revelation 14:12.
        - ii) The end obtained
          - (a) The key word is inherit.
          - (b) It is akin to the use of the word received in Hebrews 11:13 and is paralleled with the word obtained in Hebrews 6:15.

- B. The Example of Abraham (Hebrews 6:13-15)
1. The promise given (Hebrews 6:13-14)
    - a. The example identified (Hebrews 6:13-14)
      - (1) The person—“when God made promise to Abraham” (Hebrews 6:13)
      - (2) The promise—“Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee” (Hebrews 6:14)
        - a) The promise of blessing (Genesis 12:2-3; Genesis 18:18; Genesis 22:17-18)
        - b) The promise of multiplication (Genesis 17:1-2; Genesis 22:17-18; Genesis 26:1-5)
        - c) Note: It is imperative to remember that Abraham’s promise was not made through or on the basis of the law, but through the righteousness of faith (Romans 4:1-22).
    - b. The authority invoked (Hebrews 6:13)
      - (1) The common practice—“men verily swear by the greater” (Hebrews 6:16)
      - (2) The Lord’s practice
        - a) “He could swear by no greater”
        - b) “He sware by himself” (see Genesis 22:15-18); Note: This was not uncommon for the Lord to do (Isaiah 45:23; Jeremiah 49:13; Jeremiah 51:14; Amos 6:8;
  2. The promise obtained (Hebrews 6:15)
    - a. After he had patiently endured
    - b. He obtained the promise
    - c. Note: Abraham’s faith was counted to him for righteousness (Genesis 15:6; Romans 4:3, 5, 9, 13; Galatians 3:6; James 2:23). Furthermore, the Lord’s covenant with Abraham was unconditional in nature (Genesis 15:1-21). Abraham’s patient endurance only serves to describe the manner in which he lived (because he “believed in the LORD” (Genesis 15:6)) for the twenty-five years between God’s initial promise (see Genesis 12:1-4) and the giving of the seed through Isaac (Genesis 21:5).

III. THE CONFIRMATION OF THE OATH (Hebrews 6:16-20)

- A. The Nature of an Oath (Hebrews 6:16)
1. The practice of man—“men verily swear by the greater”
  2. The confidence of an oath—“an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife”
    - a. This explains the warnings and practices of the Jews during the earthly ministry of Christ (Matthew 5:33-37; Matthew 23:16-22).
    - b. This was a concern among Jews in the early church (James 5:12).
    - c. The swearing of an oath bound a man’s soul to his bond (Numbers 30:2).

- B. The Confirmation of God's Promise (Hebrews 6:17-18)
1. The purpose of the confirmation (Hebrews 6:17-18)
    - a. The people—"the heirs of promise" (Hebrews 6:17)
      - (1) This would no doubt include the Jews (those mentioned in the direct context) who had become heirs "through the righteousness of faith" (Romans 4:13-14).
      - (2) However, this got extended to the Gentiles who have placed their faith in the finished work of Christ (Galatians 3:29; Ephesians 3:6).
    - b. The testimony (Hebrews 6:17-18)
      - (1) Of God's counsel—"God, willing more abundantly to shew...the immutability of his counsel" (Hebrews 6:17)
      - (2) Of God's integrity—"in which it was impossible for God to lie" (Hebrews 6:18)
    - c. The provision—"That by two immutable things...we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:" (Hebrews 6:18); The two immutable things are:
      - (1) The initial "counsel" (Hebrews 6:17)
      - (2) The confirmation "by an oath" (Hebrews 6:18)
      - (3) Note: This is the only place in scripture that uses any of the various forms of the word immutable which means unchangeable or unalterable.
  2. The outcome of the confirmation—"That...we might have a strong consolation" (Hebrews 6:18)
- C. The Hope Offered (Hebrews 6:19-20)
1. The recipients of the hope (Hebrews 6:18-20)
    - a. Those "who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us" (Hebrews 6:18). This sounds quite familiar to what Paul admonished Timothy "lay hold on eternal life" (1 Timothy 6:12).
    - b. "Which hope we have" (Hebrews 6:19).
    - c. "Whither the forerunner is for us entered" (Hebrews 6:20).
  2. The anchor of the hope (Hebrews 6:19)
    - a. The strength of the anchor
      - (1) Sure
      - (2) Stedfast
    - b. The location of the anchor—"which entereth into that within the veil"; This would certainly be the veil in the third heaven.
  3. The forerunner of the hope (Hebrews 6:20)
    - a. The place of His entering—"Whither"; This is obviously the third heaven where Jesus is presently seated (Hebrews 1:3; Hebrews 8:1).
    - b. The means of His entering (Hebrews 1:3)
    - c. The work of His entering—"made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec
